NEW CONCEPT AT THE FOREFRONT OF CONTEMPORARY DESIGN.

Awesome Insects

The first Lladró insects have arrived and nobody will be able to resist their imposing presence. Innovative creations in porcelain and metal, decorated with pearl luster, exploring the fascinating world of the planet's most diverse creatures. Rhinoceros Beetle, with its powerful horns and decorated in faded red and black, represents the connection to the earth. Hercules, with its deep blue color and subtle touches of matte and glaze on the wings, symbolizes the honest truth. And Dragonfly, which combines dark green with faded turquoise blue, is an icon of wisdom, of understanding and the meaning of life. The legs of all the pieces are made in brass with a graphite finish.

The abstraction of the Japanese art form of origami inspires and lends its name to this collection of animals interpreted through a geometric and conceptual focus. As if they were made by folding paper, these panthers are given form in the very best porcelain. Decorated in monochrome, the fantastic panthers in the Origami collection sport unexpected colors that enhance their character.

The Guest, the charismatic character created by Jaime Hayon for Lladró, is an invitation to renowned artists to give it a unique personality. Paul Smith, Tim Biskup, Devilrobots, Gary Baseman, Rolito and Jaime Hayon himself are the forerunners of Ricardo Cavolo, the Spanish illustrator invited on this occasion. The visual power for which Cavolo is renowned is readily visible in these creations portraying his wife, in the large limited edition version of The Guest, and his son in the numbered edition of the small The Guest. His wife as a beautiful Armenian queen, transmitting strength, light and energy. And his son in a fantastic universe of mountains, flowers, volcanoes and stars.

Parrot Party

The Parrot Party collection is now enhanced by the arrival of tabletop and wall lamps. Pure and functional design is coupled with the elegance of Lladró works. The refined forms of the supports, reminiscent of the abstraction of a tree, contrast with the minute plumage of the birds. The decorative potential of lovebirds, cockatoos, parakeets and parrots, their bright coloring and the carefully studied proportion all add to the realism of a scene in which it seems as if the birds have just alighted on a brief rest during their flight.
